WASHINGTON, D. C., June 11.—Repeal of Panama canal tolls exemption for American coastwise shipping passed the senate tonight by a vote of fifty to thirty-five.

The measure now goes back to the house, which is expected to accept the Simmons-Norris amendment, specifically reserving all rights the United States may have under the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

The passage of the bill after a bitter struggle that has lasted for several months was regarded as another victory for President Wilson.

Although thirteen Republicans came to the help of Democrats who voted for the bill on final passage, the president indicated his desire for repeal, and it was behind him that many of the Democrats lined up at the last test.

There has been no certain promise from the white house that the president will sign the bill with its qualifying amendment, but there has been no declaration that he will veto it and party leaders in the senate were practically certain that its approval as amended by the house will lead to favorable action by the president.

Eleven Democrats led by Senator O'Gorman fought consistently to the end and even an hour before the last vote was taken they did not abandon their efforts to amend the bill to their view of the manner in which American rights in the canal and American rights to exempt coastwise shipping from toll payment should be guarded. Although vote after vote on all sorts of amendments passed over by majorities that never fell below twelve and on one occasion went as high as fifty-five, the minority Democrats kept up the fight to the end.

Prevent Physical Encounter.
Bitterness among democratic senators over the repeal bill flared up again tonight and before oil was poured on the troubled waters Senator Vardaman and Senator West of Georgia came near blows. Apparently only the interference of Senator Ashurst and the presence of the sergeant at arms prevented a physical encounter. Senator Vardaman stirred up the wrath of other democratic senators when he attacked the president and Secretary Bryan for making a "servile surrender" to the "unjustified and without excuse."

KERMIT ROOSEVELT AND BRIDE LEAVE ON HONEYMOON TRIP

Take Wedding Journey to Southern Spain—Colonel Roosevelt Leaves For Paris.

Madrid, June 11.—Kermit Roosevelt and his bride, the daughter of Ambassador Willard, departed tonight for their honeymoon in southern Spain. Later Colonel Roosevelt left for Paris.

The maid of honor was Miss Elizabeth Willard, sister of the bride and the bride's maids were the Princess of Thurn and Taxis, Miss Catherine Page, Mlle. Gilone LeVeneur de Tilly and Miss Virginia Christian.

In spite of a drenching rain storm a large crowd of spectators gathered outside the embassy to watch the arrival and departure of the bride and bridegroom and the wedding guests.

A wedding breakfast was served at the American embassy and a large reception was afterward held.

CARRANZA ANSWERS NOTE OF MEDIATORS

ANNOUNCES THAT HE WILL SEND REPRESENTATIVES TO CONFERENCE

Note Does Not Mention Conditions on Which Constitutionalists Will Take Part—Mediators Agree on Method of Transferring Authority at Mexico City.

SALTILLO, June 11.—General Carranza announced tonight that he returned an answer to the note of the Niagara Falls mediators stating that he would appoint representatives to the conferences at Niagara Falls.

The note simply gave assurance that the constitutionalists would be represented and did not mention conditions on which they would take part.

It was announced, however, that agreement to attend the conferences would not serve to check the campaign against the federalists and the advance to the south will be continued with vigor.

Federalists attempted yesterday to escape from Mazatlan through the constitutionalist forces, but were driven back with heavy losses.

Mediators Agree on Transfer.

Niagara Falls, June 11.—After giving out the entire correspondence with General Carranza, the mediation plenipotentiaries and the American and Mexican delegates announced tonight that a substantial agreement had been reached in relation to the transfer of authority at Mexico City.

Although they refuse to discuss the incident, it was authoritatively learned that the mediators, impatient at the delay over the Carranza answer, now consider the correspondence with him at an end and the incident concluded. The agreement which has arisen between the delegates and the mediators over the method of choosing the provisional president closed an incident which has brought the proceedings almost to the breaking point.

This important point in the plans for the unification of Mexico was gained by the United States through the conciliatory spirit displayed by the Mexican delegation. In a full conference of the mediators and the delegates of both countries it was agreed that transfer of authority from the present administration to the new provisional government should be accomplished in some other way than by Gen. Huerta's appointment of a minister of foreign affairs who would succeed to the provisional presidency.

This method, provided for in the Mexican constitution, will be abandoned because the United States insisted that to assent to it would be tantamount to a recognition of Gen. Huerta's right to exercise constitutional functions. On this point the mediation conference had been wrestling for three weeks and for the past three days continuance of the conference had been threatened. The mediators argued vehemently from the Mexican viewpoint, but the American delegates were unyielding. Matters had reached a crisis when the international bridge at sundown for what many believed would be a final conference and the end of mediation. The mediators themselves had almost lost hope of a peaceful settlement. As the Americans began their discussion with the mediators, the latter contended again that the method of transfer would not be construed as recognition of Huerta, but the Americans reiterated that the constitutionalists would never accept such a method and the latter at last could not yield consistently with its own policy.

Finally, when matters seemed at a breaking point, Luis Elguero, one of the Mexican delegates, entered the conference room and immediately a spirit of compromise was noticeable. Observing that the Americans suggested that the other Mexicans come into the conference and Emilio Rabasa and Augustin Rodriguez joined the group. It was not a formal conference, but an impromptu get-together talk. In a surprisingly brief time the Americans found they had made more headway with the Mexicans direct than they had previously by working through the mediators.

The Americans came from the chamber smiling and happy.

The Carranza correspondence that was given out is composed of only three letters. The first, signed by the three South American diplomats dated Washington, May 3, is the telegram in which the mediators withdrew their invitation to General Carranza to send a representative to the mediation because he refused to declare an armistice. Its text was published at the time. The second communication dated May 23, was that delivered to the mediators at Niagara Falls by Juan F. Urquidí and signed by Rafael Zubaran, special representative in Washington of Gen. Carranza. This letter stated that Gen. Carranza considered that the conflict in Mexico should not be the subject of negotiations at the mediation conferences in the absence of representatives of the first chief of the constitutionalist army.

The mediators replied to this note on June 2, commenting on the foregoing portion of Mr. Zubaran's note by asking if they were authorized to interpret the suggestion as an expression on the part of Gen. Carranza as an adhesion to the terms set forth in the telegraphic communication of May 3. These terms were a declaration of an armistice and a readiness to discuss all questions internal and international.

YUMA, ARIZ., IS HOTTEST PLACE ON MAP; MERCURY REACHES 106

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Heat held its relentless grip again today on the greater part of the country east of the Missouri valley. The only cool spot in the entire area was around the upper lake region, where a few places enjoyed temperatures around 60. The hottest place on the map was Yuma, Ariz., where the mercury climbed up to 106.

In St. Louis breezes held down the high temperature.

Rains tonight came to the relief of Kansas and Western Missouri. At Topeka, Kan., rain came near the end of the hottest June 11 on record there. The mercury reached 98 degrees.

At Pittsburgh, Pa., six more deaths were reported.

WORTHINGTON CONFESSES TO HIDING NEGOTIABLE NOTES

CHICAGO, June 11.—John W. Worthington, president of the bankrupt American banking association, confessed today to having $35,000 in negotiable notes hidden in the basement of his home. Worthington testified before Sidney C. Eastman, referee in bankruptcy, and was cross-examined by counsel for the receiver. He admitted to having made many transfers of property to his wife, Mrs. Jennie Worthington, including pieces of real estate valued at more than $350,000.

Worthington was forced to testify under threat of contempt proceedings and the examination was aimed to help the receiver discover the amount of Worthington's assets.

Springfield, Ill., June 11.—It is believed tonight that the Illinois supreme court will adjourn the June term next Tuesday night or Wednesday morning when a decision in the woman suffrage case is expected. PEACE EFFORTS GET SETBACK

Pittsburgh, June 11.—Preliminary efforts to effect a settlement of the strike of the 10,000 employees of the Westinghouse company and the Pittsburgh Meter company received a setback today when the presidents of two of the affected companies refused to treat with deputations from the Allegheny Congregational industrial union, the strikers' organization.

This letter concludes as follows: "If this were so we would take the liberty of suggesting through you to the first chief of the constitutional army that he hasten the appointment of his representatives to the conference in which we are now engaged."

To this no answer has been received and the mediators have frequently said that they considered it beneath their dignity to wait any longer for General Carranza to define his attitude, having given him more than a week.

THAW MAY BE ALLOWED TO RETURN TO HIS HOME IN PITTSBURGH SOON

NEW YORK, June 11.—Harry K. Thaw soon will be allowed to return to his home in Pittsburgh if an agreement reached today by his counsel and William Travers Jerome is ratified by the United States supreme court. Thaw expects to testify in the Pennsylvania courts in the matter of his father's estate.

BATTLE FOR POSSESSION OF SEVEN YEAR OLD HEIRESS GOES TO COURTS

ALBANY, N. Y., June 11.—The battle for the possession of Mary Ann Gavit, the seven-year-old heiress to $14,000,000 left by her grandfather, the late Anthony N. Brady, was carried into the courts today when the Brady family obtained a temporary injunction forbidding the child's father from taking her from the state.

Gavit's first wife, the mother of the girl, was killed two years ago in a railway accident and he recently married again. He was preparing to go to Denver when halted by the court's order.

ATTEMPT TO DESTROY CORONATION CHAIR

EXPLOSION IN WESTMINSTER ABBEY IS HEARD FOR MANY BLOCKS

Bomb Placed Beside Famous Chair in Edward, the Confessor's Chapel Damage is Slight—Believe Militants Leave Explosive Laid Behind Large Party of Sight-seers.

LONDON, June 11.—An attempt to blow up the King's coronation chair which has been in Westminster Abbey since 1296 was made today by militants at the very moment that the Right Honorable Reginald McKenna, secretary of state for home affairs, was delivering an optimistic speech in the house of commons regarding the government's method of dealing with "the wild women."

The bomb was placed beside the famous chair in Edward the Confessor's chapel. Although it did little damage like previous attempts at destruction of the same kind, its report penetrated to the chamber of the house interrupting Mr. McKenna's oration and bringing some of the members into the street to learn what had happened.

The detonation was heard for many blocks and a crowd quickly filled the square in front of the abbey. But the police immediately closed all the doors. A statement issued by Scotland Yard gives the facts as follows:

"At five o'clock," says the statement, "a small bomb was exploded in immediate proximity to the coronation chair. It is supposed that some member of a large party of sightseers lagged behind the others deposited the bomb when the others had left the chapel. Fortunately the damage done was slight. A portion of the carved wood at the back of the chair was blown off and some of the stone carving of the screen of the great altar was damaged apparently by some iron nuts contained in the bomb."

"The bomb, thin metal nickel plated, was exploded by a fuse. A woman's feather box, a guide book and a small black silk bag were found on a chair nearby."

A hundred or more visitors, many of them Americans, were being conducted by vergers about the abbey when a sudden flash, like lightning, penetrated every recess. A sharp detonation set the women screaming and running for the doors.

A great cloud of dust filled the chapel. The first thought of those within was that lightning had struck the building.

The discussion of the militant campaign today in the house of commons showed that the government contemplates no new measures to control the militant women, except to inaugurate an attempt to make the subscribers to the funds of the women's social and political union responsible for damage the militants inflict.

It is believed that a test case will be made of the mutilation of the Rock by Benug which was slashed last March by May Richardson. If the government is successful, it is believed that the insurance companies will bring suit for the buildings burned and that other persons and corporations which have suffered losses will do likewise.

Fears of suffragette activities have caused the withholding from publication in London of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt's engagements during his approaching visit to England.

DELIVERS TRIBUTE TO AMERICAN MEN

CLUB WOMEN PRAISE THEM AS GREATEST BLESSING TO WOMENKIND

Suffrage Advocates Still Hopeful of Ultimate Victory Although Deal Stinging Blow in Battle For Recognition by Federation—Fight Threatens Serious Break.

CHICAGO, June 11.—Three thousand women cheered American men as the "greatest blessing to women-kind" at today's meeting of the general federation of women's clubs.

The tribute to the nation's bread winners that aroused the applause of the delegates was delivered in a speech by Mrs. Percy V. Pennacker, president of the federation.

"My friends," said Mrs. Pennacker, "think what a splendid thing it is for us that we have the club husband. Think of the sympathy he has given us in our work. What a wonderful a blessing is the American man."

Although dealt a stinging blow in their battle for recognition by the federation, suffrage advocates were still hopeful of ultimate victory. The setback came in the unanimous adoption of the report of the committee on rules which gives to the committee the same arbitrary powers conferred on it two years ago at San Francisco.

Under this rule debate will not be permitted on any resolution offered until it has been referred to the committee and then reported to the convention. The suffragists however, after a poll of the committee were hopeful of favorable action by that body.

"Suffrage will come up on the floor of the convention and it will carry," declared Mrs. George Bass. Mrs. Catherine Vaughn McCulloch, "mother" of the Illinois suffrage law, also expressed confidence that the federation will demand and adopt a suffrage resolution.

A serious break in the federation is threatened by the suffrage battle. Mrs. Pennacker has received a telegram from Mrs. Horace Bruck, honorary president of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's clubs warning the federation that if it admits political clubs to full membership, there would be an immediate break in the national organization caused by the withdrawal of the opponents of such action.

There are 1,716 delegates entitled to vote at the convention and the suffragists claim a majority of these.

Illinois alone has 279 delegates and other suffrage states are said to be well represented. The suffragists claim also that a poll of the six members of the resolutions committee shows four of them in favor of suffrage. The least they expect that a minority report of the resolutions committee will throw the whole question on to the floor.

A large number of routine reports were presented and adopted, including one on membership by Mrs. Frank White of Valley City, N. D., who said that the General Federation had gained 32,685 members in the last two years.

Mrs. Hugh Ried Griffin brought greeting from Paris and Mrs. John Lockie from London. Mrs. Lockie's sprightly remarks greatly amused the audience.

"In the United States," she said, "we pay much attention to the privileges of our servants; in London we pay none but the English get the better service. Young women in the United States have greater social freedom than England and they go no where without a chaperon. They are chaperoned to dances for instance, but at English dances there are rest periods at which the young women and young men go out alone and they have to ring a bell when the music starts to get them back."

Mrs. Lockie illustrated the English servant problem with the following advertisement, which she said was soberly printed in the Times:

"A good cook wanted; she is offered a magnificent view from the kitchen window overlooking main thoroughfare with constant arrests, small accidents, ambulances calls and other interesting events all hours of the day and evening."

GOVERNMENT BEGINS SEARCH FOR A CANTALOUPE TRUST

CHICAGO, June 11.—The United States government today began the search for a cantaloupe trust by summoning numerous commission merchants to testify before the grand jury relative to an alleged close control of the crop. The inquiry is directed against commission merchants in New York, Pittsburgh, Chicago and California and may form the basis of action under the Sherman anti-trust law. The alleged offenders are said to be the two boards of control of the eastern cantaloupe exchange. As evidence of the activity of the exchange, investigators assert that before it was formed in 1911, cantaloupes usually sold for $1.75 a case and that immediately after its organization the price advanced to $3.

WILL GIVE MONEY FOR NEGRO SCHOOLS.

Chicago, June 11.—Julian Rosenwald, millionaire, agreed today to provide the money to erect rural school houses for negroes in the south. At a conference with Booker T. Washington, he promised to duplicate whatever money is raised for that purpose in any southern community.

The location of the schools and the details of their construction will be left to the Tuskegee Institute in Alabama.

Springfield-Hannibal Highway Association To Hold Picnic On That Date—Governor Dunne To Make Address.

Hon. Edward F. Dunne has accepted the invitation of the officers of the Springfield-Hannibal Highway association, and will accompany the inspection party over the highway on Wednesday, June 24.

This will be the first inspection tour over the new highway. A party of one hundred or more citizens of Springfield will leave that city at 7:30 a. m. Wednesday, June 24, and inspect the highway to Griggsville, stopping at each town on the route. Another party will leave Hannibal, Mo., the western terminus of the highway, and journey to Griggsville over the new highway, where the two parties will meet. Every citizen in the towns and cities between Springfield and Hannibal are invited and urged to join the inspection party to Griggsville.

At the Griggsville fair grounds a good roads picnic will be held. Governor Dunne will deliver the principal address at the picnic. Other prominent speakers in the state will be invited to attend. It will be a good old time picnic to arouse interest in better roads, and the officers are planning to accommodate the crowd.

The Springfield-Hannibal Highway association was organized at Griggsville on March 13, and since that time thousands of dollars and much labor has been put on the highway. As a result of the organization every mile of the road is reported in good condition, but the work will not be halted; additional efforts will be made between now and June 24 to put the road in first class condition.

WHEAT HARVEST

Wheat cutting has already begun in the county and during the next week or two the greater part of the crop will go into shock. Among those already harvesting the Journal has heard of Marshall Stout and Fred Scholfield, both west of the city. Mr. Gibbs of Lynville said yesterday that his wheat was about ready to cut but he would be glad to have ten bushels an acre insured him on account of the ravages of the fly though he thinks it not generally as bad as that.

PRETTY WEDDING IN COLLEGE CHAPEL

BRADFORD-HAYDEN NUPITALS WERE CELEBRATED.

With Simple and Beautiful Service Mr. George Owen Bradford of Waverly and Miss Martha Hayden of This City Are United in Marriage, Dr. R. O. Post Officiating.

The marriage of Miss Martha Gold Hayden and Mr. George Owen Bradford took place at 9 o'clock Thursday morning in the chapel of Illinois college, in the presence of a large number of friends of the bride and groom. The ceremony was said by the Rev. R. O. Post, pastor of the Congregational church and followed without change the marriage service in the book of common prayer. The young people were attended by Mr. Howard Ellis of Washington Court House, O., a friend and fraternity brother of the groom and by Miss Charlotte Hayden, sister of the bride. The chapel was decorated for the occasion artistically, but simply, and the event was characterized throughout by a pleasing informality and charming homeliness. Both bride and groom have been prominently identified with the student life of Illinois college and the selection of Jones Memorial building as the place for the wedding was particularly appropriate. This wedding was the first ever held in the chapel of the college.

It was originally intended to hold the wedding in the month of July, but plans of the bride's father for attending the forty-fifth anniversary of his class at Yale university, rendered expedient the change in date. Jones Memorial building had not been suggested as the place for the wedding until the Osage Orange picnic Monday evening. The invitations were verbally communicated, in keeping with the general informality and democratic spirit of the occasion.

Mrs. Helen Ayers Bullard played the march from Lohengrin as the wedding party entered and the Mendelssohn wedding march as a recessional. The following musical program was rendered in connection with the ceremony:

Organ—Serenade..... Schubert
Mrs. Helen Ayers Bullard.
Voice—Coronation..... Ayleward
Mrs. George Orear, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard.
Organ—Thou Art Like a Flower..... Schumann
Mrs. Bullard.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Dr. F. S. Hayden, dean of the college. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and wore a simple gown of white lace. The bridesmaid wore white voile and carried a cluster of yellow daisies. Lilies and daisies with a background of greenery, formed the decorations. The flowers were refreshingly beautiful and were especially selected from the gardens of friends. They were arranged by Mrs. Thomas Worthington, assisted by Mrs. Andrew Russel.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the library and rooms adjoining the chapel. Refreshments were served, consisting of wedding cake and punch and the work of the caterers was worthy of special commendation. A large bride's cake was cut and the usual tokens found therein. The thimble was found by Miss Millicent Rowe, the ring by Miss Charlotte Hayden, the darning needle by Miss Eleanor Capps and the dime by Miss Emma Mae Leonhard. Ushers for the occasion were Morrison Worthington, Ben B. Watson, Wayne Wright and Frank Phillips. The young people were recipients of a number of presents, including a handsome ornamental shield, a present to the groom from his brothers of the Delta Chi fraternity at the University of Chicago. The groom was reared in Waverly and attended Whipple academy and Illinois college. He is the son of Mrs. Nellie Bradford of Waverly.

After leaving Illinois college he went to Princeton whence he was graduated in 1912. He attended the law school of the University of Chicago and was afterward connected with a Chicago real estate firm. He is now at Waverly in the Star store, one of a series of general merchandise concerns.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Hayden and was born and reared in this city. She received her education in the Jacksonville Female academy, Whipple academy, and Illinois college, whence she was graduated Wednesday forenoon, the day before her marriage. She is a young lady of many talents and lovable character. SENATE PASSES TOLLS EXEMPTION REPEAL

tion that somebody else has been influenced."

Senator Ashurst interposed. By this time the two were only a few feet apart, but Senator Ashurst had stepped between them. He laid his left arm across Senator Vardaman's chest and extended his right toward the Georgian and tried to pacify them, but they kept talking.

"The senators will please take their seats," urged the presiding officer, while the galleries looked on as if at a play.

"No, I am not going to sit down," continued Mr. West, and Senator James tried to explain that the Georgia senator was trying to make no charges. Finally all resumed their seats without a blow on either side. Both Senators West and Vardaman explained that they meant no reflection upon anyone in what they had said.

Senator Clapp, republican, in a speech in opposition to repeal, declared President Wilson was a dangerous leader for democratic senators to follow. Reviewing the president's early writings, he declared the president was no more a democrat at heart than Senator Root or former President Taft.

"He is leading his party to the same disaster which met another leader who once declared, 'I am the state,'" added the senator.

Senator Borah warned the senate that in the years to come when the United States is engaged in a struggle with England for domination of the seas, the American people will look back and condemn those who forced the passage of the repeal bill.

"I am looking forward to the time," said Senator Borah, "when every foot of the public land will be occupied and when there will be no outlet for the congested centers."

"At that time we will be in a struggle with the empire of Great Britain for the commerce of the world. At that time this canal will be as vital as the arteries that penetrate the nation and take care of its inland business. At that time we will not suffer in contentment any limitation upon our action with reference to this canal. How small and puny in that hour will seem the question of subsidy. How wretched and delusive will be the dream of universal peace. While the cannons may not roar, there will be that struggle for supremacy of commerce."

"I make no effort to conceal my profound regret that this bill is to become a law. You may give the canal away, but the American people will take it back."

In answer to Senator Borah, Senator Williams declared that if the canal was given away it was given away by a republican president and republican secretary of state. "I do not think we are giving the canal away by observing the conditions of an international compact," said Senator Williams. "If it was given away at all it was given away by entering into that compact."

To Be Sent to House.

The bill as passed by the senate probably will be sent over to the house tomorrow and can be taken up at once if house leaders desire. With the senate amendments it is a subject for conference if leaders on the house side insist upon one but it can be finally disposed of immediately so far as congress is concerned if the house accepts the senate amendment and agrees to the bill as sent them from the senate side. A conference would delay final approval by congress but it is not expected that the measure would be kept in conference more than a few days.

The evident temper of the senate to defeat the bill unless amended is expected to have weight with the house and the Democrats anxious to put an end to the matter as soon as possible are expected to demand early action.

PYTHIAN JUBILEE TO BE GREAT FRATERNAL GATHERING

Plan is to Have 2500 Candidates Take Degree Work—J. F. Claus on Publicity Committee.

J. F. Claus has been appointed a member of the publicity committee for the Knights of Pythias golden jubilee which will be held in Chicago, September 5, 6 and 7. It is the hope and expectation to have 2500 candidates take the work at that time and the plans which have been outlined indicate that this will be one of the greatest fraternal gatherings ever held.

The publicity committee has recently made public an official communication which gives a clear idea of the very extensive preparations which are being made for this great event in fraternal circles. The main paragraphs are given herewith.

"In furtherance of a resolution passed by the Illinois Grand Lodge in Decatur in 1913, carrying with it an appropriation of $1,000, the Executive Committee named by Grand Chancellor Whitfield has held several sessions for the purpose of setting in motion all those influences that would tend toward the ultimate success of the plans originally outlined in the resolution. These plans involve the initial effort of interesting all the existing elements in our order, and the combining of the efforts of each, so that United Pythian Endeavor shall result in presenting the Knights of Pythias to the public in a manner capable of producing the greatest possible good to the order. It is therefore proper at this time the committee present the following: Resume of events for September 5th, 6th and 7th, 1914.

Saturday, Sept. 5, Pythian Day.
Afternoon—12:30 to 5 o'clock—Lake Front Park. Field day, baseball and athletic events by the Knights of Pythias Baseball and Athletic association. It is intended that the Supreme Chancellor shall be escorted to the Executive Committee stand on the Athletic Field at four o'clock. Following the close of the Field Day events, an informal reception and dinner will be tendered the Supreme Chancellor and his staff at the Auditorium hotel headquarters.

Saturday Night, September 5.
Golden Jubilee Page Class Initiation, at Mystic Shrine Convention Hall, Cass and Ohio streets. The entire building has been secured, and it is expected the largest class ever initiated in the history of fraternal orders will be present that night. A strong, excellent committee has the work well under way, and assurances are ours that Indiana alone will send a large number. Other states are also interested and Illinois lodges from corner to edge expect to send new material for the Jubilee Class.

Sunday, Sept. 6, Pythian Fraternity Day.
A bureau is being developed, the purpose of which is to furnish able speakers and orators of note to fill pulpits of churches, public halls, assembly rooms and theatres for that day and evening, with the theme and topic of "Fraternity"; to appeal to the better side of man in a fraternal way, and to develop in the non-member a desire to co-operate with orders such as the Knights of Pythias in "the work for all humanity."

Sunday Afternoon, Auditorium.
Immense mass meeting at which services of a devotional character proper for the day will be observed. Hon. William J. Bryan has been invited to deliver an address. The Supreme Chancellor, Vice Chancellor and other speakers of assured ability will address this outpouring of the people on our second day's celebration.

Monday, Sept. 7, Subordinate Lodge Day.
Mammoth Subordinate Lodge and Military Department Parade on Michigan boulevard. The big spectacular event of the three-day jubilee. An augmented troop of Chicago's mounted police—all members of the order—will lead down the avenue the most unique and interesting parade of Subordinate Lodges with pictorial floats, depicting scenes and events famed in Pythian history. A complete section will be composed of "interstate lodges" with floats and displays from lodges outside of Illinois. The Military Department will be in line in all its glory and trappings. Already over thirty lodges have applied for space for displays and floats, and the work is going forward with all speed. Each lodge is to uniform its members in some distinctive way, and no part of the parade will permit of a large number of men appearing in ordinary civilian dress. The reviewing stand will be located at the Auditorium, and it is safe to say that this great parade will take four hours to pass a given point. Every indication points toward this being an unparalleled Pythian parade, an honor to the order, a day not to be soon forgotten.

All the affiliated bodies connected with the order in Cook county are vitally interested and working. Especially notable is the work of the Pythian Sisters, who by their unselfish devotion and effort are bound to make good in the most excellent way.

Evansville, Ind., June 11.—Members of the Indiana Republican Editorial association rounded up here today and began what promises to be the most notable annual meeting in the history of the association. Addresses will be delivered by former Vice President Fairbanks and former Governor Wilson of Kentucky, former Governor Deneen of Illinois, and former Governor Durbin of Indiana.

We have assembled for this week another list that is astonishing—not to say startling—in its disclosure. Bear in mind as you read these items that the reduced price is for this week only. ODD FELLOWS MEMORIAL SERVICE SUNDAY

Local Lodges Will Unite in Observing Day at Northminster Church.

The committees appointed by the Odd Fellows of the city have completed arrangements for observing the annual Memorial services Sunday, June 14.

The service will be held in the Northminster church, where a program appropriate to the occasion will be rendered and the annual sermon will be preached by the pastor, Rev. Walter E. Spooner, who is a member of Urania lodge.

This annual observance is looked forward to with much interest by the thousands of more Odd Fellows of the city and a special importance attaches itself to the event this year, from its being the 95th anniversary of the founding of the order.

The members of the organization will meet in their respective halls at 10 o'clock sharp and march to the church in a body, the lines of the two lodges intermingling on West State street.

The Daughters of Rebekah are requested to meet in the parlors of the church and seats will be reserved for them in the church auditorium. The members in charge of the arrangements promise an especially enjoyable and profitable program, and request all Odd Fellows in the city and county to make a special effort to attend.

The committees follow: Illini Lodge No. 4, I. O. O. F., F. M. Brewer, chairman; C. O. Bayha, E. M. Johnston. Urania Lodge No. 243, I. O. O. F., J. H. Campbell, chairman, J. W. Bowen, C. E. Seymour.

FLAG DAY ANNIVERSARY IS NEAR AT HAND

History of American Emblem Can Be Traced Back to June 14, 1777.

The American flag is a growth, rather than a creation. Its history can be traced back to the twelfth century, or nearly 600 years prior to the first "Flag day," June 14, 1777.

During the first crusade in 1195, Pope Urban II. assigned to all of the Christian nations as standards crosses varying in color and design, emblematic of the warfare in which they were engaged. To the Scotch troops was assigned the white saltire, known as the white cross of St. Andrew, on a blue field. The British used a yellow cross, but a century and a quarter later they adopted a red cross on a white field, known as the red cross of St. George.

When James VI. of Scotland ascended the throne of England as James I. he combined the two flags and issued a proclamation requiring all ships to carry the new flag at their mainmasts. At the same time the vessels of south Britain were to carry at their foremast the red cross of St. George and the ships of north Britain to carry the white cross of St. Andrew.

The new flag was known as "king's colors," the "union colors" or the "great union," an dlater as the "Union Jack," and was the one under which the British made all their permanent settlements in America. It was the flag of Great Britain only by proclamation, however; not until 1707 did parliament pass an act definitely uniting the two countries and their flags. In the same year the government issued regulations requiring the navy to use what was known as the white ensign; the naval reserve the blue ensign, and the merchant marine the red ensign. Owing to the fact that the British merchant vessels were everywhere, the colonists in America came to look upon this red ensign as the flag of Great Britain.

The people in the New England colonies were bitterly opposed to the cross on the flag. In 1635 some of the troops in Massachusetts declined to march under this flag and the military commissioners were forced to design other flags for their troops with the cross left out. The design they adopted has not been preserved. In 1652 a mint was established in Boston. Money coined in this mint had the pine tree stamped on one side of it. The pine tree design was also used on New England flags, certainly by 1704, and possibly as early as 1635.

At the outbreak of the Revolution the American colonies had no flag common to all of them. In many cases the merchant marine flag of England was used with the pine tree substituted for the Union Jack. Massachusetts adopted the green pine tree on a white field, with the motto: "An Appeal to Heaven." Some of the southern states had the rattlesnake flag with the motto, "Don't Tread on Me," on a white or yellow field. This flag had been used by South Carolina as early as 1764. Benjamin Franklin defended the rattlesnake device on the ground that the rattlesnake is found only in America and that serpent emblems were considered by ancients to be symbols of wisdom.

The Story of the Star and Stripes.
In September, 1775, there was displayed in the south what is by many believed to be the first distinctly American flag. It was blue with a white crescent, and depicted the dress of the troops, who wore caps inscribed "Liberty or Death."

The colonists desired to adopt a common flag, but they had not yet declared independence and were not at first seeking independence. They took the British flag as they knew it and made a new colonial flag by dividing the red field with white stripes into thirteen alternate red and white stripes. This is known as the Cambridge flag, because it was first unfurled over Washington's headquarters at Cambridge, Mass., on January 1, 1776. It complied with the law of 1707 by having the Union Jack on it; it also represented the 13 colonies by the 13 stripes.

As the colonists gradually became converted to the idea that independence from the mother country was necessary, they began to modify the flag, first by leaving off the Union Jack and using only the 13 horizontal stripes. The modified flag was not always red and white but regularly consisted of combinations of two colors selected from red, white, blue and yellow. The final modification was the replacement of the Union Jack by the white stars on a blue field.

The stars were the only distinctive feature of the American flag. The charming story which credits Betsy Ross with making the first flag of stars and stripes is still accepted by historians. When Washington suggested the six-pointed star, she demonstrated the ease with which a five-pointed star could be made by folding a piece of paper and producing one with a single clip of the scissors. Some writers are of the opinion that both stars and stripes in the flag were derived from the coat of arms of the Washington family, but this theory is not generally held.

The official adoption of our first flag was in 1777. On June 14 of that year the Continental Congress passed an act providing that "the flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white on a blue field, representing a new constellation." The thirteen stars were arranged in a circle to symbolize the perpetuity of the union of the states.

Vermont was admitted to the union in 1791 and Kentucky in 1792. It was felt that these two new states ought to be recognized on the flag, so in 1794 congress passed an act making the flag fifteen stars and fifteen stripes.

This remained the flag of the United States throughout the war of 1812, until there were twenty states in the union. In 1816 an effort was again made to modify the flag so that all the new states would be represented on it. To be continually adding stripes would make the flag very awkward in shape and appearance, so after arguing the matter for two years, congress decided to return to the original thirteen stripes and one star for each state. Congress has never determined the arrangement of the stars nor the shape and proportions of the flag and there has been great variation, especially in the grouping of the stars. There are still many who believe that the symbolic circular grouping of stars should be restored.

How I Produced 12 Pounds of Beef From One Bushel of Corn.

I bought 44 cattle through Milton Marshall & Co., St. Louis, of Henry Wright, they averaged 961 pounds, March 19, 1914 in St. Louis. I put them in dry lots March 27th, fed them all they would clean up in 30 minutes, crushed corn, cob and all then cooked in the 50 bushel size Wood's Grain Softener.

I put them on grass May 25th, they averaged 1200 lbs. when put on grass. While in dry lot I gave each steer 5 lbs. clover hay. After they ate their grain, I kept oat straw before them all the time, but they would not eat over one bale of straw per day. I fed at 6 a. m. and 6 p. m., at regular hours.

I measured the grain fed with a No. 8 scoop, feeding 50 scoops at each feed or 100 scoops per day, all they would clean up. I put in 20 bushels ground cob corn and all into a 50 bushel vat. This will fill it making 50 bushels feed, which makes 4 feeds, all they will clean up. I drew 50 gallons of syrup off and added 50 gallons of water, then added 1 1-2 bushels of ground oats and shorts, with which I am feeding 80 pigs that are doing well.

I will feed the cattle about 30 days longer and would be glad to have any one interested come and see them.

IN SUCH PAIN WOMAN CRIED

Suffered Everything Until Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Florence, So. Dakota.—"I used to be very sick every month with bearing down pains and backache, and had headache a good deal of the time and very little appetite. The pains were so bad that I used to sit right down on the floor and cry, because it hurt me so and I could not do any work at those times. An old woman advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I got a bottle. I felt better the next month so I took three more bottles of it and got well so I could work all the time. I hope every woman who suffers like I did will try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." — Mrs. P. W. LANSING, Route No. 1, Florence, South Dakota.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

LONG AGO IN NAPLES. THE CRITZERS.

One of the best known and most prominent men in Naples, for many years, was Peter D. Critzer.

Mr. Critzer married Miss Lodwick, daughter of Capt. Kennedy Lodwick. It was well to take up the history of Captain Lodwick, preliminary to the Critzers, and their children.

Kennedy Lodwick was born in Adams county, Ohio, May 15, 1803. Adams is a "river county." When quite young he went to Portsmouth, in the adjoining county of Scioto, and at the mouth of the river of that name, where he became a merchant. In Portsmouth, presumably, Mr. Lodwick married Miss Caroline L. Woods. Mrs. Lodwick died May 11, 1892, at the age of 45 years, and was buried at Naples. They were the parents of Mrs. Peter D. Critzer, and Mr. Lodwick owned and occupied the Collins house, now owned by Mrs. Henry Abbott. There was not then, probably, all along the Illinois river, so fine and stately a house, nor one more beautifully situated. After the death of Mrs. Lodwick this house became the home of their daughter, Mrs. Critzer, until that family left Naples as a residence. I remember seeing Captain Lodwick there, and he was a fine looking, kindly man. I imagined he was old, because I was so young.

Mr. and Mrs. Lodwick came to Naples in 1836. They came by way of Chicago, and Mr. Lodwick was undecided for a while whether to go to Chicago or to Naples, as a place of residence. He decided in favor of Naples, which it is not to be wondered at. For at that time most of the population of the state was in the central and southern part, and the river system was the established highway of travel and of commerce. At that time St. Louis was a large firmly established place, attractive for position and location, while Chicago was small, a veritable mud hole and had to be raised bodily four feet out of its quagmire.

Mr. Lodwick first engaged in mercantile business at Naples, but soon went into steamboating, in which line he owned and commanded a large number of fine boats, navigating almost every river from New Orleans to Pittsburgh, and from the mouth of the Ohio to the headwaters of the Mississippi and Missouri.

The Collins-Critzer-Abbott House.

Among Captain Lodwick's boats were the Granite State, Ohio, Mail, St. Louis, Galena, Kentucky and a number of others. During the war Captain Lodwick served the United States with the Kentucky, going wherever ordered.

Captain Lodwick passed away Feb. 25, 1876, at Naples.

The Critzer family came to Naples from Ohio, in 1835, that is the old people, bringing their children, of whom Peter D. was one. The father, Mr. Critzer was of German descent, but it was far back. His children were John J., Peter D., Otto D., and one daughter, Lydia, who died in Portsmouth, Ohio, about 1836. John always made Portsmouth his home, although he visited at Naples. Otto D. was employed in storekeeping and married Miss Maria Barber, whose father, the late Aug. K. Barber, then lived near Concord, Morgan county, but afterwards came to Jacksonville. Mrs. Critzer is a splendid woman, and still living, in Kansas. Otto was a lieutenant in the 10th Regt. Ill. Vols. He lived at Mercedosa, latterly, and then went to Kansas, where he died some years ago. They lived at Wichita.

Mr. Peter D. Critzer was born in Athens county, Ohio, Jan. 7, 1820, and married Miss Matilda J. Lodwick about Jan. 1, 1845. Mrs. Critzer was born at Portsmouth, Ohio, May 3, 1828. She died in Ashtabula, Ohio, April 12, 1900.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Critzer were Charles P., born at Naples, Dec. 4, 1845, Caroline C. Dresser, born at Naples, and died Jan. 12, 1914, at the home of her son, K. L. Dresser, in Peru, Ind. Mrs. Dresser's husband was Henry C. Dresser, son of the late Judge Dresser, of Naples. Henry C. was a railway conductor and was killed in a wreck near Decatur.

Another son of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Critzer was Clarence L., now a resident of Cleveland, Ohio. Their second daughter was Frances E., who became the wife of Charles K. Lee, and they are now residents of Peru, Ind., where Mr. Lee is holding a responsible position in the employ of the Chesapeake & Ohio railway company. Their children are Minnie, who married F. B. Reigert, and lives in Pueblo, Colorado, and Carrie Louise, known as "Nina," who married N. J. Moore, son of Mahlon Moore, who lived three and one-half miles east of Naples, and the same distance south of Bluffs, Scott county, Ill. N. J. Moore is now assessor and treasurer of Scott county, residing in Winchester.

Charles P. Critzer, whom I knew as a boy, was a clerk on steamboats for some time and then engaged in other business. He was an invalid during the last sixteen years of his life, and died in Spokane, Wash., Dec. 8, 1911. He was a pleasant boy, and no doubt his older years were characterized by the same good qualities.

I remember visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Critzer in 1853 and recall Mrs. Critzer as one of the prettiest and most attractive ladies I ever knew. She must have made home attractive for her family, for it was so pleasant in those days, when many people lived far less comfortably and elegantly than the same class do now.

Mr. Critzer owned and operated the ferry boat at Naples, and I think had charge of the Perry Landing warehouses for some years. He was engaged in milling, and then became a merchant in Naples, until his health failed, a few months before he left Naples, as a residence, in the summer of 1879. He then went to Kansas, and from there to Geneva, Ohio, where he died Feb. 26, 1895. Mr. Critzer was a pleasant man to me, and all of us can recall meeting me who were not so, when we were young. He was active and alert and, while probably a man of few words, yet I imagine people easily knew what he meant when he spoke. He was apparently an easy and good manager of his employees.

As is well known to all people of Naples, Col. U. S. Grant started to march his regiment to Quincy, Ill., from Springfield, where he took command of the 21st Illinois Volunteers, and he reached Naples on Saturday, July 6, 1861, and went into camp on the grounds of Mr. Critzer, just north of Mr. Critzer's residence, on the high ground, affording a beautiful view of the beautiful Illinois river, for he remembered the Ohio did not monopolize all the attractions of the west, then or now.

Mrs. Charles K. Lee of Peru, Ind., to whose kindness and patience I am indebted for many of the dates and facts in this paper, although it has never been my pleasure to meet the lady, wrote the following regarding her recollections of Gen. Grant's presence, with his command.

"It was on Saturday afternoon, not later than 3 o'clock, possibly earlier, my sister and I were playing in the garden with some little girl friends. Capt. Abrams' daughters—when the soldiers came marching along and camped just a short distance above our house. The 'maid' we had was baking pies, and the soldiers just came in great numbers and offered almost any price for the

J. W. ARNOLD HAS FINE

FARM EQUIPMENT

Barn Erected Recently One of Finest in County — Has Fine Lot of Horses.

One of the extensive farmers of Morgan county is Mr. Arnold, living a few rods north of the station named for him. His barn is one of the landmarks of that entire locality and his farm is carried on in a practical manner. In the lot by his house is a large concrete tank in which is kept a supply of water for house and barn and with a gasoline engine and compressed air apparatus he needs do little pumping anywhere by hand. Other conveniences about the place are pleasant to note.

Mr. Arnold still sticks to cattle feeding and thinks there is money in it, one year with another, when managed right. Two or three years ago he went to the Ozarks and bought a lot of frames and did well on them, and now he is feeding a good sized bunch he bought in St. Louis. Of course it takes care and intelligent attention to make it profitable. Mr. Arnold says a good time to buy feeders is in the fall during a dry time, when a good many men get discouraged and are ready to unload at more reasonable figures than can be had at other times.

He grazes and roughs them through till along about the first of January and then begins to feed in earnest. He believes in the staples of course, but says a steer likes a little change as well as a human being. We always have meat, bread and potatoes, but sometimes we like a variety of other provender and animals are much like us in that regard. He gives his steers a daily ration of four pounds of oilcake and champion molasses food, mixed half and half, a peck of shelled corn, all the ensilage they will eat and what other roughness he can get, such as fodder and similar material not too costly.

Mr. Arnold is an ardent believer in the silo and says it is just the thing in that a steer needs when he is being fed. He thinks it wasteful to cut the stalks down and burn them and thus deplete the land. Ensilage and plenty of livestock will keep up a farm and save many dollars' worth of good feed, which would otherwise go to waste.

Of course he has plenty of hogs to run with his cattle to eat the droppings and waste feed which the steers will cast out of the feed-boxes. Then he has salt, ashes and good powders to keep the animals healthy and he likes a clover pasture for them. He is not devoted especially to any one breed, but likes to cross red and black. He seeks a boar large, long, heavyboned, and a sow likewise, and from that combination he is sure to get good results. His herd is not much troubled with hog cholera and he avoids confining them where the conditions are not sanitary, and he tries to have pure, clean water for them to drink at all times. He feeds his cattle regularly, as that is one of the elements of success in that respect and he likes to be methodical as far as conditions will permit, though of course no hard and fast iron rule can be adopted on a farm, for circumstances will necessarily alter cases.

In horses Mr. Arnold is well equipped and he turns away from fast and fancy stock to the broad-shouldered, heavy chested Percherons, which will pull anything loose. Last December he bought of W. S. Corsa of Whitehall, a 14-year-old mare, "Corsetta," a registered Percheron, sire "Besiguen," The mare has a colt sired by the celebrated "Carno," a horse never beaten in a show ring and whose season is $150. Then he has "Combino," dam by "Carno," sire by Casino, which won first premium at the St. Louis worlds' fair and took 117 first premiums and sweepstakes in France and America and was never beaten in show ring.

Then he has a little Shetland-like 2-year-old, coal black, weighing about 1,800 or 1,900, gentle as a kitten and good natured. This animal is also a registered horse, and with some thirty mares on the place, Mr. Arnold is prepared to rear horses.

He says it is the profitable thing for a man who raises that kind of stock to begin to work them at two and in due time fully break and develop them and then sell for city uses, as they are of place both suitable for the road or for fast getting about, but on the other hand there are places on the farm where they are valuable.

For instance, when Mr. Arnold has land to break he gets his gang plows in shape, hitches six Percherons to them and turns over forty-two inches at a time. This is surely getting over the ground some and is but play for the big Percherons.

Each kind of an animal has its place and there are places for the huge draft horses which Mr. Arnold prizes so highly. He says they are easily reared, are almost always kind and gentle, good dispositions and easy to manage and not dangerous to children or any one else. Hence he likes to raise them and get the mready for the city market when they are of the proper age.

Seeking Gloom

By WALT MASON.

"There's always something to worry o'er," says old Jim Grouchy, the village bore; "the cows go dry or the hens don't lay, or the chinch bugs ruin the corn and hay; if we have a drouth it will kill the oats, if we have a rain we must go in boats; There'll be tornadoes along in June and blow our homes clear around the moon; there'll be a frost and the storms will rave, and I sort o' look for a tidal wave." And old Jim Grouchy has n'er a chum; the people hide when they hear him come; he makes them tired with is grave-yard grin, and they'll all be glad when he cashes in: "There's always something to chortle o'er," says old Joe Jinks, of the Good Luck store. "If one thing fails, then another thrives, the sun is shining in all our lives. There'll be no storms and there'll be no frost, and we'll have gazelles for the goats we lost; the world is bully and life is great, and he who croaks is a tin horn skate." We all love Joe with his cherry speels, who's always telling how gay he feels.

EIGHTH INNING RALLY WINS FOR WASHINGTON

MAKE TWO RUNS AFTER TWO MEN ARE OUT.

Weaver Is Ordered Out of Game For Disputing a Decision—Steen's Brilliant Pitching Enables Naps to Shutout Philadelphia.

Chicago, June 11.—An eighth inning batting rally after two men were out today gave Washington a four to two victory over Chicago and checked the winning streak of the locals.

Faber pitched a grand game until the eighth inning when Smith, a Washington recruit placed a double in left. Schaefer ran for Smith and scored the tying run on Milan's triple. Gandil's single scored Milan with the winning run. The locals made their runs in the opening inning on Weaver's home run into the left field bleachers, a single by Blackburne and Collins' double.
Weaver was ordered out of the game by Umpire Evans for disputing a decision. It was reported that Manager Griffith had asked waivers on pitcher Cashion.

REDUCE CHAMPIONSHIP
POSSIBILITIES TO FOUR.
Kansas City, June 11.—With the championship ahead of them, two heavy showers did not stop the play of the eight golfers in the quarter finals of the championship flight in the tournament of the trans-Mississippi Golf association at Evanston Golf club here today. When the matches were over, championship possibilities had been reduced to four men—M. A. McLaughlin, Lakewood Country club, Denver; S. E.
Edmonds, Country club, St. Louis;
John Deere Cady, Arsenal Golf club,
Rock Island, Ill.; and E. R. Morris-son, Evanston club, Kansas City.

The Kearney team, winners of the pennant in 1913, is a bad last in the Nebraska State league championship race.

SOME OFF-SIDE CHUTES.

Walter Johnson was no terror at Chicago Wednesday, when the "advanced baseball" White Sox clouted him good and plenty. Joe Benz was pitted against him, and but for an error of judgment by Scotty Alcock the Indiana butcher boy would have been credited with his second no-hit game within ten days. In the ninth inning Alcock shot a bouncer between short and third, on which Weaver had set a trap. Alcock, the ex-outlaw, in his over-anxiety, raced after the pill and attempted to grab it with his ungloved hand. His attempt deflected the ball so that Weaver was unable to field it in time to get the Senator at first. The official scorer refused to charge Alcock with an error, allowed the hit and deprived Joe of a clean tab, the Hoosier also not issuing a pass nor winging a batter.

Artie Hofman has succeeded in his law suit against the Cubs, Municipal Judge Dolan of Chicago allowing him $2,944.47 as the difference between his Cub contract calling for $5,000 and the salary he received from Pittsburgh, to whom Murphy sold him three years ago. So jubilant was Circus Solly over the result of the court battle he attempted to have some fun with Umpire Van Sickle in the Hill Top-Chief game and was canned with a $25 fine attached.

Red Corriden just now is the king pin of National league pinchers.
Monday the Logansport machinist pinched for Goode and his hit broke up the game and won for the Cubs.
Tuesday he pinched a two-base smash off Tesreau, and Wednesday his four-base blow saved his team from a shut-out at the hands of Marquard.

Johnny Coulon appears not to be satisfied with the result of Tuesday's battle. He is going to start all over again and work himself back by easy stages into the championship. His conqueror has told him to go as far as he likes and that when he is ready for another trimming he will be accommodated without any quibbling.

Jacksonville lovers of amateur sports will be much interested in the big track meet to be held on Stagg field, Chicago, tomorrow. John Cannon left last evening and will take part in several of the events.
He is entered in the hammer throw, the broad jump, in the hurdles and in the pole vault events. This high school young athlete has set his eye for the pole vault and believes his chances are better than equal for first honors.

The Macks Wednesday turned a new trick. In the fifth at Cleveland they went at Mitchell for seven hits, a pass, and assisted by an error, scored eight runs, after which they played tag with the Naps for a shutout.

The Yankee line-up at present can hardly be recognized as the one the Peerless Leader opened the season with. During the past three weeks a day has not passed when a new member has not been exposed. The scouts are working overtime to build up a winner, and yesterday at St.
Louis Chance announced that a new firstbaseman and an outfielder were on the way to join the team.

If reports from the east are correct the line-up in tomorrow's international polo match will be "alive" with

TIME ALLOWANCE GIVES RESOLUTE 6TH. CLASS CUP RACE WITH VANITIE

SANDY HOOK, N. J., June 11.—Her time allowance of three minutes and 13 seconds gave the Resolute today the sixth class cup race with the Vanitie sailed in the lightest of air over a thirty mile triangular course. The Vanitie led at the finish by one minute and 57 seconds but the Resolute was awarded the race on corrected time by one minute and sixteen seconds.

The Defiance, the third cup defending aspirant made no effort to race today, contenting herself with sail trial spins inside of Sandy Hook. She will not race off the Hook as her sails need re-cutting and her mast requires slight alterations.

BRITAINS DEFEAT AMERICA'S SECOND STRONGEST TEAM
Hempstead, N. Y., June 11.—By a total of 4 to 3-4 the challenging British poloists scored a victory today over what is considered to be the second strongest team in the United States.

Today's match closed both American and English teams' practice for the championship contest Saturday.

LONDON WELCOMES SALVATIONISTS.

London, June 11.—In the same city where "General" William Booth and his little band of followers were derided and hooted in the streets but little more than thirty years ago thousands of his devoted followers gathered from every part of the world assembled in the Royal Albert hall this afternoon and listened to words of cordial greeting from some of the foremost men and women of England, among them the premier of Great Britain and the lord mayor of London.

The occasion of the gathering was the formal opening of the International congress of the Salvation Army. The congress meets but once in ten years and as a natural result of the great progress made by the organization during the past decade, the present gathering will eclipse all of its predecessors in interest and attendance. According to a statement given out today at the convention headquarters the registered delegates number nearly 40,000 men and women, representing fifty-eight countries.

The largest delegation from abroad is that representing the organization in the United States. It numbers 600 officers and soldiers and is headed by Commander Eva Booth, daughter of the late "General" Booth.

In the opening addresses at the congress today a touching tribute was paid by all the speakers to the memory of those who lost their lives in the Empress of Ireland disaster, the victims of which included practically the entire Canadian delegation to the congress. In the great convention hall where the sessions of the gathering are to be held during the next three weeks the section set aside for the Canadian contingent has been draped in black.

RAILROADS OBJECT TO PAYING COUNTY AND SPECIAL ROAD TAXES

Objections Are Upheld By Judge Grote and Cases Will Be Carried to Supreme Court—Amount Involved Totals About $2000.

Judge Paul Grote of Pittsfield was in the city Thursday to consider the tax cases pending in the Morgan county court so far as objections relate to railroads. Objections were filed sometime ago by the C. B. & Q., the Wabash and the Chicago & Alton to certain taxes levied by Morgan county, South Jacksonville and some other villages. Judge Grote after hearing the argument of attorneys, sustained all the objections and an appeal was asked for to the supreme court on behalf of the people and was granted. The amount of taxes from which the roads will be relieved unless the supreme court reverses the findings amounts to about $1932.47.

In the proceedings Tuesday the Wabash was represented by J. A. Bellatti, and the Burlington and C. & A. by Wm. T. Wilson. Robert Tilton and T. P. Smith appeared on behalf of the people and J. P. Lippincott was the representative of South Jacksonville, Woodson and Murrayville.

Object to County Tax.

In the objections filed by the Burlington the company first objects to payment of a county tax, which with interest and costs amounts to $110.61. The objector avers that this levy was improperly and illegally made and that it was therefore illegally extended. Further the objector states that the appropriations levied by the county board for various purposes amounted to $83,500, including items as follows:

For repairs etc. of the court house $4,000.

For repairs etc. of county jail, $3,500.

For state aid roads, $10,000.

It is set forth that the amounts of the items quoted equal 21 per cent of the total amount of taxes levied. That the equalized value of the property of this objector assessed in the name of the St. L. & Chicago R. R. Co. in said county amounts to $109,250; that the rate of taxes extended thereon was 47c; that the tax extended amounted to $512.48; of which 21 per cent or $107.52 was illegal and void because said items for repair and maintenance of the court house and jail, levy a tax for more than one purpose without designating the amount required for each purpose separately.

It is maintained therefore that the tax levied on this account is invalid and further it is set forth that the taxes extended for State aid roads were not extended in the mode prescribed by the statutes.

Secondly the road objects to a tax of $365.38, assessed against its property in the name of the Jacksonville and St. Louis R. R. It is shown that this sum is made up of $310.31, levied for county purposes, and $47.28 levied on property in road district No. 9. It is maintained that these amounts equal 21 per cent of the total amount of taxes levied for county purposes; that the property assessed in the name of the J. L. & St. L. amounts to $314,335; that the tax rate extended thereon was 47c; that the taxes extended against the objector's property amounted to $147.38 and that $310.31 is illegal because items for repairs for jail and court house were not designated separately as is by law required.

Claim Road Law Not Followed.

"Further the objector shows that the equalized value of this property in District No. 9 is the sum of $78,813; that the rate of tax extended thereon is 65c, making a tax of $512.29 of which $47.28 is claimed to be void. It is set forth that the certificate from which this tax is extended calls for a levy of $5912.78 for road and bridge purposes under Section 56 of the revised road and bridge law, and the sum of $1,067 for road and ditch damages under Section 58 of said law. The equalized value of all property in said road district is $1,582,276, upon which a rate of 59c upon each $100 of this value will raise the amount levied for road and bridge purpose under said section 56. A levy under Section 58 of the revised road and bridge law can only be made when damages have been agreed upon, allowed or awarded for laying out widening, altering or vacating roads, or for ditching to drain roads for the purpose of paying such damages and to the persons damaged. And this objector says that no such damage has been agreed upon, allowed or awarded wherefore said tax against the property of this objector to the amount of $47.28 is void."

Several Villages Affected.

The objections made by the Wabash R. R. to the payment of $379.29 of the county tax fund is based upon the same reasons or points as those made in behalf of the C. B. & Q.

The Chicago & Alton objects to the payment of $398.40 on the ground that the tax for state aid roads was not properly levied. The railroad objects to the payment of $119.12 levied against the property in South Jacksonville on the ground that the tax levy ordinance was not properly passed. For the same reason objection is made to a tax of $221.09 levied by the village of Woodson, and objection is made also to $392.55 levied by the village of Murrayville, according to the objectors, without the tax levy ordinance having been passed in proper form.

The objection made by the Jacksonville Railway & Light Co., to taxes levied to the amount of $965.84, will be heard by Judge Brockhouse today. These objections are from a reason entirely different from those made, the basis of objections by the railroads. The Gas Company objects to being taxed for its capital stock on the ground that the company is a Madre corporation and that its capital stock cannot properly be assessed in Illinois.

POULTRY CULTURE. Article XXXIV.

(The Five "G's" of Poultry Culture From an address by the late T. E. Orr, of Beaver, Pa.)

The first "G" stands for the grains that may be grown on every farm, though we don't want much corn—it goes too much to fat. It does not make muscle; it does not contain the elements necessary to best muscle or egg making.

The second "G" is for the greens, clover or alfalfa hay. Don't feed it in a dried up condition. Don't expect hens to eat sticks. It must be cut while green and carefully cured, avoiding all weeds. Pack it in sacks before sundown the same day it is cut and for the next few days throw the sacks out in the sun; then hang them up in the barn and put the hay through the cutting machine as needed by the chicks. Sugar beets, turnips, cabbage and potatoes are other greens that are fine for poultry.

The third "G" is the grit that is necessary. Hens that are producing winter eggs can not go out in the snow and slush for grit. Given grains and greens they must have the grinders. If you have never gotten down close enough to the hen on her perch at night to hear the grinding going on in her craw, you have never been close enough to the poultry business to make a success of it.

The fourth "G" is gray. We ask the hen to give us something rich, some must furnish her some rich material to make it with. We must give her meat in some form and I like the granulated beef scrap we buy at the packing house better than anything else.

The fifth "G" is gumption. We must have gumption or we will never have success in poultry keeping. The average farmer must be more careful what he feeds and how he feeds it if he is to have profitable egg production. This is the reason eggs have been so high in price. Many people get few if any eggs in winter. With right breeding, followed by right feeding there should exist no scarcity in egg production. If I were given the contract to double the egg production of Illinois I would not double the number of hens, but I would start away back in the matter of breeding. Breed the hen for a special purpose and push her to the limit along that line.

Mr. Orr said that many people think that just any one can raise poultry—that is a false idea. It requires careful study and preparation and a love of nature to make a successful poultry raiser. He said that after a man had reached the middle age it was no time for him to take up the culture of poultry. The man who goes into the poultry business should profit by all that has been learned by those who were in the business ahead of him and not try to fight it out along the same lines that were adopted by his predecessors years ago. Eggs like plant and animals are not made out of nothing. The hen is a machine for making eggs. If the machine is a good one, is cared for and fed properly, eggs may be produced in abundance at all seasons of the year.

Successful poultrymen as a rule maintain that a good supply of clean scratching litter in the yards, and where possible, also in the houses, is the keynote to success. Busy birds are generally healthy, contented and productive. Birds must have exercise, and they get more under these conditions in small yards than they do where the range is unlimited but with no scratching litter.—H. A. McKee, Secretary, Illinois Farmers' Institute.

NOTICE TO AUTOMOBILE OWNERS.

Owing to the fact that gasoline mixtures will stand considerable thinning during the summer months and that any number of cars are now troubled with over-heating due to a great extent to improper lubrication, adjustment of ignition devices, defective radiation, slipping clutches, as well as numerous minor faults, we have arranged for the service of an efficiency engineer who will be at our Sales-and-Service Dept. on June 12th and 13th. His services will be free to the automobile public between the hours of 8 a. m. and 5 p. m. on these dates; the average amount of time necessary to make these adjustments is from ten to fifteen minutes. The general automobile public is invited to avail themselves of this opportunity.

Remember these services are absolutely free.

THE SWIMMING POOL.

The young men's booster club committee met the Nichols park board last evening and had a conference regarding swimming at the park and plans moved along several degrees. Something more definite was suggested and it is indeed hoped and fairly may be expected that before long people may be swimming in Morgan lake. Definite particulars cannot be given at the present time but it is confidently expected that this desirable enterprise will be duly launched at a not at all distant day.

AFTER MANY YEARS.

T. F. Moseley of Clark county, Montana, arrived in the city yesterday and is staying at the Dunlap House. Mr. Moseley was a member of the class of 1889, Illinois college and well remembers the men of those days. He finds few here now who look familiar but he was a good student and a faithful member of his literary society. He was also an instructor in the State School for the Deaf and anticipated with pleasure a visit to the grounds of the college and the institution.

TEACHERS COMMEND WORK AT COUNTY INSTITUTE

Resolutions Were Adopted at Session Thursday Afternoon—Congratulate Supt. Montgomery.

The following resolution was adopted Thursday by teachers who are attending the Morgan county institute at the high school building: Jacksonville, Ill., June 11, 1914. We, the teachers of Morgan county institute assembled, appreciating fully the valuable and interesting session of summer institute which we have enjoyed and which is just now closing, desire hereby to express our appreciation of the able and entertaining instruction we have received at the hands of our present instructors, Profs. Race, Reynolds and Warren, and we wish to compliment County Supt. Montgomery upon his selection.

As they leave us they carry with them the best wishes of the teachers of Morgan county, and we take this means of assuring them that they will ever have a warm place in the hearts of the teachers of old Morgan.

We further wish to express our deep regret at the prospect of losing our excellent county superintendent, H. C. Montgomery. And while we congratulate him upon the splendid appointment his merit has secured, we deeply deplore our loss of him as superintendent of our schools, and wish hereby to express our appreciation of his services, his kindly co-operation and help and the individual interest he has ever shown in each of us as teachers.

The spirit of good will and fellowship prevailing among the teaching fraternity of the county is a mute but living testimony to the value of Mr. Montgomery as an officer, friend and man.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.

Is To Be Duly Celebrated at Nichols Park in Proper Style.

At last definite arrangements are under way for the celebration of the Fourth of July in Nichols park. The young men's boosters club has united with the park board and last evening a committee of the young men met park board at its regular meeting and agreed to co-operate with it in securing the funds and making necessary arrangements. A future meeting was decided on and at that time more definite plans will be announced.

The park board and young men feel certain the people of Jacksonville and all concerned will co-operate in this enterprise and thus secure for our beautiful city a celebration worth while and to some extent worthy of the day.

Due announcement will be made as fast as anything is accomplished and the hearty assistance and encouragement, financially and otherwise of all patriotic citizens is desired and certainly will be given.

Rev. J. T. Agnew of Waverly has decided to remove to this city and will shortly become a citizen of Jacksonville where he and his estimable family will be very welcome.

WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

HEAVINESS APPEARS IN STOCK MARKET; SPECULATION IS DULL

Movement as a Whole is Narrow
With Only a Fractional Change in the General Level at End of the Day.

New York, June 11.—Heaviness appeared in spots in the stock market today. Speculation was as dull and colorless as on recent days. Canadian Pacific was depressed by the statement of gross earnings for the first week of June, revealing a decrease of nearly $500,000. St. Paul fell behind for a time, owing presumably to disappointment over the slow absorption of the new bonds.
Reading and smelting also were heavy, as were a few of the specialties. The movement was a whole however, was narrow with only a fractional change in the general level at the end of the day. Engagements of $2,300,000 gold for Paris today brought up the total this week to $17,350,000, a high record in the outflow of gold from New York in a single week. The outward movement of gold since May 6th, now amounts to $36,200,000 and since January 1, to $52,200,000.

Mothers Tell of Mother's Friend

Experience is or should be the best teacher. Women who have obeyed the highest and noblest of all sacrifices, the struggle for the life of others, should have a better idea of helpful influence than those who theorize from observation. At any rate when a prospective grandmother urges her daughter to do as she did—to use "Mother's Friend," there is ample reason to believe it the right kind of advice. "Mother's Friend" is an external application for expectant mothers. Its purpose is to furnish placency to the muscles, to take away the strain on the cords and ligaments, to relieve the tension of nerves and tendons so apt to provoke or aggravate nausea, morning sickness, twitchings of the limbs and so on. Although, in the nature of things, a woman would use "Mother's Friend" but rarely, yet so effective has it been found that this splendid remedy is on sale in most drug stores throughout the United States. It has been prepared by Bradford Regulator Co., 206 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., and advertised by us for over forty years. This is a fine record for such a special remedy and the grateful letters received to-day are just as appreciative as were those of years ago notwithstanding that methods are supposed to have greatly advanced. Ask at the drug store for a bottle of "Mother's Friend." It is worth while. What is said herein of "Mother's Friend" is but a repetition of the thoughts expressed by thousands of happy mothers who have successfully used this splendid external application.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE NEW KINDERGARTEN.

The reports of the year showed that a good work had been done and that the affairs of the board are in a desirable condition.

FRECKLE-FACE

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots

—How to Remove Easily.

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine as this is the prescription sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—Adv.

REFERENCE BUREAU WILL PREPARE TABLES FOR LEGISLATURE

Purpose is to Have Facts and Figures in Shape to Be of Value in Making Appropriations.

The legislative reference bureau has addressed the following communication to news papers throughout the state.

To the Editor,
Dear Sir: For the first time in the history of Illinois, a budget detailing altogether its thirty million dollars, more or less, of expense, is to be presented to the legislature which meets in January, 1915.

Work has already been begun on forms for the budget by the legislative reference bureau, which was created last year on Governor Dunne's recommendation, and given the task of preparing for the appropriation committees a statement of financial needs which is expected to make clear and easy a task which has hitherto always been confused and difficult.

Requests to Be Tabulated.

The money requests of all departments will be tabulated, in comparison with the appropriations of last year, the recommendations of the civil service commission as to salaries, and the suggestions of the governor as to measures of economy. At the same time the amount of appropriations is being considered, information will be supplied as to the means of raising the money appropriated, so that the legislature may vote for expenditures, knowing what tax rate will result.

Summary of Bureau's Work.

Finley E. Bell, secretary of the legislative reference bureau, makes the following summary of its accomplishments to date:

"The act creating the bureau imposed four specific functions upon it. 1. The collection of data and material of every sort that will aid the members of the general assembly in the performance of their official duties.

2. The necessary clerical work at session time, i. e., the collection, cataloging, classification, indexing and digesting of all bills, memorials, resolutions, orders, amendments and changes, as well as furnishing a weekly digest to each member of the general assembly.

3. The drafting of bills, memorials, resolutions and orders upon the request of any members of the general assembly.

4. The preparation of the state budget for the next biennium.

"It is now about six months since the bureau was organized, and the work of preparation is being rapidly carried on. In pursuance of our first duty—the collection of material—we have assembled, as far as possible the laws of all the states, reports of their various departments; ordinances of all the leading municipalities; reference works and law digests on all current legislation; newspapers, books, periodicals and all such printed or written matter, as may be of use to the members of the general assembly.

"The clerical work at session time and the bill drafting will be taken up in due season by assistants especially trained along those lines.

"The budget will be taken up during the coming months. The statutes require all state departments to make their reports by the first of November of the appropriations which they require for the biennium for which the appropriations are to be made by the next general assembly.

The bureau has recently prepared and issued a booklet entitled 'Digest of Legislation Enacted and Proposed—Forty-Eighth General Assembly,' which has been widely distributed and has received a cordial welcome from many members of the general assembly and a large section of the press. It is the intention of the bureau to issue from time to time similar literature on live questions of current legislation and public policy, which it is hoped will be of use to the legislators and interest the general public as well."

REV. AND MRS. PERCY STEPHENS
NOW IN THEIR JACKSONVILLE HOME

New Pastor of First Baptist Church Weds Miss Annie Badenoch of Chicago—Wedding Notable Event But Simple in All Details.

Rev. and Mrs. Percy W. Stephens came to Jacksonville from Chicago Thursday night and will very speedily be established in their new home, 125 Diamond Court.

The Chicago News gives the following notice of their recent marriage:

Miss Annie Badenoch, daughter of Former Chief of Police John J. Badenoch, 2956 Washington boulevard, was married to the Rev. Percy William Stephens, formerly associate pastor of the Second Baptist church of Chicago, last evening at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. John Marvin read the wedding service in the presence of over 200 guests.

"The bride's niece, Miss Helen Isabel Badenoch, was the maid of honor, and her four sisters-in-law—Mesdames J. W. Badenoch, E. C. Badenoch, D. A. Badenoch and E. W. Badenoch—served as the matrons of honor. Edward C. Badenoch, brother of the bride, attended Mr. Stephens as best man, and David A. Badenoch and Ernest W. Badenoch stretched the ribbons. The bride was given in marriage by her father and was preceded to the altar by her mother, on the arm of the eldest brother, J. W. Badenoch.

"Mr. and Mrs. Stephens will make their home in Jacksonville, Ill., where Mr. Stephens has accepted a call to the First Baptist church.

The presence of the Badenoch family made the event a notable one in Chicago. In addition to the 200 guests who thronged the house as wedding guests a still greater number was on the lawn during the ceremony. One of Chicago's best known orchestras gave a musical program during the reception which followed the ceremony. Mr. Badenoch is a millionaire member of the Chicago board of trade and many of his business associates were in the company. A number of cablegrams and Marconigrams were received from relatives of Mr. Stephens in England and who were unable to be present.

As previously mentioned, Mr. and Mrs. Stephens have been associated in religious and social uplift work in Chicago and they have a deep and common interest in the serious work which will be theirs as a pastor and a pastor's wife. The members of the First Baptist church and the people of Jacksonville generally will welcome them to this city.

Rev. E. M. Harris testified that the deceased was at his residence Wednesday evening, when he talked as usual and did not mention feeling bad. Bettie Coleman stated that she saw him at 10:30 o'clock, when he complained of pains in his chest and said he thought he had taken cold and that he was going home to take some medicine. She said that two years ago he had an attack of acute indigestion. Dr. A. M. King, who examined the body of the deceased, also testified. Mr. McCune is survived by his mother, Mrs. Frances Dugan, with whom he made his home.

Arrangements for the funeral will be announced later.

FARMERS HAVE BEGUN TO HARVEST WHEAT CROP

Some Grain Will be Cut Green on Account of Chinch Bugs and Hessian Fly—Early Date For Wheat Cutting.

This section of Illinois has already established an early record for wheat cutting as some farmers have begun their wheat harvest, several will start today and a larger number next week. Usually July is the month for wheat cutting, while June 11 is a date, that has scarcely had a parallel, at least for a great many years. This is due partly because of the presents of flies and insects in the wheat and again because the grain had a good fall growth, and thirdly because of the extreme dryness of the season and the unusual heat. There are a few fields in which the bugs have not worked and the yield promises to be very large. It appears that were the stand was heavy the insects avoid those fields.

In Murrayville neighborhood, John Irlam expects to start on his 55 acre field today. Where the Hessian fly has worked on about 20 acres the yield will not exceed 10 bushels, the remainder which is partially eaten by the insects will average 20 bushels to the acre. This field could have gone four or five days longer but Mr. Irlam concluded that it would be better to harvest it before the straw falls.

George Clayton has a field of 60 acres which he expects to put the binder in today and others who will commence right away include Percy Doby, Warren Fanning and Edward Doby.

Several in the Woodson neighborhood expect to start wheat harvest shortly. Robert Smith, Thomas Walsh and James McCormick will commence Monday.

Cut Wheat Yesterday.

Rees Brothers of Franklin started to harvest a twenty acre field Thursday, believing it would be better to cut the same while a little green than to run the chance of further injury from the chinch bugs. Kirby Bros., have a field of 30 acres in the same community and Isom Seymour a field which they will commence work on at once. George Durham and Otto Spies each have a field of later wheat that is greatly damaged by the bugs. Mr. Durham has a field which the bugs have not bothered and it may yield 40 bushels to the acre.

Sylvanus Scott has an unusually heavy field of wheat of 18 acres, which has been free from insects. It looks good for 40 or 50 bushels per acre. It will be ready to harvest in about ten days. Most of the hard wheat will be ready to work with in a week or ten days. In fact a trip through the county shows that where the bugs have not gotten at the wheat the yield is far above the average.

Don't fail today to go to Wilbert's east side square, near southeast corner—and get a five dollar safety razor for 98 cents.

GIFTS ARE MISSING.

Considerable mystery surrounds the disappearance of a suit case and chaffing dish, which were hidden in the high school building. The suit case was to have been a gift for Coach Bland and the chaffing dish to Miss Scott, officers of the class. It was the intention to present these gifts the evening of class day, but a rulling of the student association prevented such so the matter was dropped until after commencement. When the committee of the senior class went to get the articles they found them missing. The class believes they have a clue to the theft.

LONG TIME RESIDENT OF
WOODSON CALLED BY DEATH

John Bown Dies Suddenly at Home of His Son at Age of 89 Years.—
Coroner Wright Holds Inquest.

John Bown, aged 89 years, a long time resident of Woodson precinct, died suddenly Thursday morning. At an inquest conducted by Coroner Wright, James Bown, a son of the deceased who made his home with his father, said that the past six or seven days his father had been ill and that for ten years he had been taking treatment for stomach trouble. He testified that at daylight this morning he took a glass of milk to his father, which he drank and as the father seemed alright the son went back to bed. He said that when he arose again at 5 o'clock and went to his father's room, he found him out of bed and unable to get up or walk. After putting him back to bed and putting cold cloths to his head, the son sent for help. Mrs. Frank Worrall called Dr. Spencer, but Mr. Bown died in a short time.

John Bown, another son, and Mrs. James Bown, a daughter-in-law, also testified and the jury attributed death to heart failure superinduced by acute indigestion. The jury consisted of J. E. Thompson, foreman; J. W. Woods, clerk; Frank Worrall, Oliver Angelo, Vernon Bridges and John Pate.

Mr. Bown was born April 4, 1825, in Somersetshire, England, and came to Morgan county in 1867, where he has followed the occupation of a farmer. He was a member of the Church of England. His wife died 9 years ago and he is survived by two sons, James, with whom he made his home, and John, of Woodson.

The funeral services will be conducted Saturday morning at nine o'clock from the family residence, 7 miles northwest of Murrayville, and interment will be made in Diamond Grove cemetery.

FUNERALS

Funeral services for Charles Moore were held at the Second Baptist church Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, in charge of Rev. H. H. DeWitt, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The flowers were cared for by Mrs. Mary Spencer, Miss Winnie Holmes, Miss Sallie Williams and Miss Lida Tinsley.

Interment was made in Jacksonville cemetery and the bearers were James Young, Isaac Gorham, James Mathews, Daniel Tinsley, Sherman Spencer and Julius Rice.

Announcement Made Thursday Evening at Home of Mrs. James H. Hall in Presence of a Number of Friends of the Bride-To-Be.

Miss Maude Haxton and Mrs. Ray Bourn will be united in marriage some time in the month of August, according to an announcement made Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. James H. Hall, an aunt of Miss Haxton, who entertained for twenty-two of her niece's lady friends. Both young people are well known in the community and will receive congratulations from friends in large numbers. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Haxton of Asheville and received her education in this city. Features of the evening's entertainment were a number of games and contests in which prizes were won by Harold Hall and Miss Margaret Bourn. A luncheon followed at the beginning of which the guests drank to the health of the bride, thus making the announcement. The refreshments included ice cream in the form of hearts and wedding bells, cake and lemonade. Cards with the name of the prospective bride and groom were placed near the plate of each guest. The table was charmingly decorated in pink and white with a large cluster of gladioli in the center. The refreshments carried out the color idea of the decorations.
